

The Performance of Kijing Terminal - Pontianak is Currently Towards Green Port

Admin -- 17 November 2022

Since it was inaugurated by President R.I Joko Widodo on Tuesday, August 9 2022, the Kijing - Pontianak West Kalimantan Terminal has served 433,626.50 tons of cargo, consisting of 308,089.24 tons of loading and 125,537.26 tons of unloading.

The cargo loaded is Refined Bleached Deodorized Palm Oil (RBDPL) 164,788.15 tons, Refined Bleached Deodorized Palm Oil (RBDPO) 57,365.73 tons, Refined Bleached Deodorized Palm Stearin 39,002.20 tons Crude Palm Oil 12,981.92 tons, Palm Kernel Oil 8,548.59 tons, Palm Kernel Expeller 13,300 tons and Palm Fatty Acid Distilled 12,103.65 tons.

Meanwhile, the cargo unloaded at the Kijing Terminal consisted of 119,546 46 tons of Crude Palm Oil, 2,967 tons of General Cargo and 3,083 tons of Methanol.

"Most of the products exported were CPO derivative commodities with export destinations to China amounting to 69,297 tons, India 93,669 tons, Malaysia 24,889 tons, Vietnam 9,900 tons, South Korea, 14,008 tons and Pakistan 14,693 tons," said Pelindo Regional General Manager 2 Pontianak Hambar Wiyadi through his written statement received by Mimbar Maritim editor, today Tuesday (15/11/2022)