Jakarta, August 16, 2023 - PT Pelindo Solusi Logistik or SPSL is increasingly active in synergizing and collaborating with various parties to strengthen the company's business. One of them is by cooperating with PT Surabaya Industrial Estate Rungkut or PT SIER in the management and integrated logistics services in the East Java industrial area.

SPSL and PT SIER collaborate to build partnerships and synergies in the logistics management of industrial estates in the East Java region, which includes joint marketing of logistics services and operational implementation of logistics services in industrial estates which include container depot services, customs, trucking, multimodal transportation, warehousing, forwarding, inventory utilities, packaging, export / import and other business potential.

"This cooperation is in line with the Company's roadmap, and is one of the highlights of the Company's 2023 program, namely strategic partnership & commercial excellence. This collaboration will certainly have a mutually beneficial positive impact on both parties and become a stepping stone to spur business transformation towards a more advanced direction and remain competitive in the long term and sustainable," said SPSL President Director Joko Noerhudha.
